

Goalball Referees Clinic
Vilnius, Lithuania
June 1-5, 2004

SUPPORTED BY IPC 2004 DEVELOPMENT FUNDS

Theory

"Goalball Officials' Certification Program was presented by Mr.Alexander Knex, IBSA level III goalball referee from Germany"

"Two-day theoretical courses were interesting and useful for all participants of the Clinic"

Theory

"Two-day theoretical courses were interesting and useful for all participants of the Clinic"

"Candidates from Belarussia, Estonia and Poland took the opportunity to upgrade their knowledge in refereeing"

Practical examination during friendly games before the tournament

"Self-confidence and experience of referees come through practical application of their knowledge..."

Practical examination during friendly games before the tournament

"Testing and evaluation of candidates is also a hard work"

"Coming to a right decision is not so easy sometimes..."

Practical examination during the International goalball tournament

"Mr.Alexander Knext gave examples of a standard refereeing to candidates of the Clinic"

"Referees at the table are not supposed to make mistakes"

"Fast games between strong teams require lots of attention from candidates"

Practical examination during the International goalball tournament

"Fast games between strong teams require lots of attention from candidates"

"Eyeshades check during games"

